

INNOVATIVE PACKAGING

A simple and effective solution.

The new era of single-portion packaging has now come.

Any kind of product - fluid or granular- can be packed guaranteeing a simple and safe one-hand opening, choosing among different formats, available in standard or customizable versions.

Whether it's a sauce or a condiment - thanks to the absence of air inside - the product remains untouched longer.

A practical gadget for customers, that makes this single-portion packaging a simple - but elegant - means of communication.

Practical and ready to use.

This one-hand opening system is suitable for all people and in every situation.
